

The Cohen Memorial Fund Scholarship Application

The Cohen Memorial Fund at the Virginia Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) offers a number of scholarships for children and teens to participate in art education. The scholarships are intended to provide for an understanding and appreciation of the arts to those who might not otherwise be financially able to participate, and to recognize and encourage artistically gifted individuals. Scholarships are awarded based on financial need.

Application Procedure:

- Please complete a separate application for each child.
- Mail this application to MOCA Education Department, 2200 Parks Avenue, Virginia Beach, VA 23451 or email to Truly@VirginiaMOCA.org
- Please limit requests to up to 2 classes per child.
- Children 6-16 years of age must complete the attached form entitled, Why I want to go to Art Camp
- A MOCA staff member will notify you regarding scholarship status prior to requested course start date.
